Basically the adults of my family are all debating whether we should go. We have been moderates for 20 years.. but Trump changed things forever for us. We have woken up to the corruption, and now we are trying to figure out if we need to be there on Jan 6th to save our country.

Thoughts?

9 ▼ My dad wants to fly but I suggested driving. We are also debating on bringing our compact squirt guns as well. You guys bringing your squirt guns?

4 ▼ I'm not bringing my squirt gun. I would if I didn't lose them all in a boating accident a while back, but since I no longer have them I sadly can't.

2 ▼ Driving puts more of the trip under your control, but if you fly early like the 5th, you could still reasonably expect to get a flight there by the 6th. Squirt guns are up to you, none of my business

5 ▼ Don't be that guy that says "I should have goe." , when you see Kamelass Harris laughing with her husband a bible.

Outside of some extreme circumstances, situations and lack of means to travel a long distance there is absolutely zero reason you shouldn't go.

From this day to the ending of the world, But we in it shall be remembered— We few, we happy few, we band of brothers; For he to-day that sheds his blood with me Shall be my brother; be he ne'er so vile, This day shall gentle his condition; And gentlemen in America now a-bed Shall think themselves accurs'd they were not here, And hold their manhoods cheap whiles any speaks

Go and make it painless and fun. Stay at a chain hotel in Montgomery County, Maryland, and take one of the many metro stations into D.C. We need numbers of people on camera to show the world the support here for DJT.

Most "News" outlets are going to manipulate any camera angles, and probably use fake photos, blockade roads etc, to try and demoralize us. Just go and see for yourself!
